SCHOOL BOND PROPOSAL is going before Louisville Public School District voters - The $37.5 million bond issue question is set for a May 13 election. Voter registration deadline is April 25. The proposed levy would add 26 cents per $100 of assessed valuation—on top of current taxes—to finance improvements. The bond issuance would expand and modernize school facilities with a 61,000-square-foot addition and renovations to 30,000 square feet of existing structures. Key projects include:
 -19 new or renovated classrooms and improved elementary classroom spaces
 -A more secure high school entrance
 -A brand new Career & Technical Education building
 -A renovated and expanded kitchen and cafeteria
 -A new competition gym and a revamped existing gym for performing arts and multi-purpose use
 -Additional and enhanced parking facilities
 Construction is projected to conclude in the fall of 2028. The bond issue went to the voters on a 4 to 2 vote from the board of education this month. Dan Witte, Jackie Heard, Sara Quam, and Andy Mixan voted aye; Jim Group and Dan Beck voted nay.
 ---In May of 2024, the Louisville district presented a $37.2 million bond issue to voters.
 FOR said bonds and tax- 664 votes, 48.9%
 AGAINST said bonds and tax- 694 votes, 51.1%
